WHAT ARE PEOPLE FOR?

Lafayette Ron Hubbard

Welcome to the new Scientologistsfreezone newsletter!

This is the first issue of the scientologists freezone newsletter.

It has been said that Ron's original working philosophy is the road to freedom for the individual.

What IS the Original Workable Philosophy of Lafayette Ron Hubbard you might ask? The Workable Philosophy of Lafayette Ron Hubbard is a researched and developed method of improving and expanding the awareness of the individual and through the use of specific exercises enhances the individual's ability to improve his own life and spirituality.

There are two aspects to the technology Ron developed. Training and Auditing (Auditing means: to listen). Training encompasses the information which Ron discovered about life which people were not previously aware and which, when applied, improves a person's ability and understanding of life.

Auditing is that specific action designed to improve a persons ability in a particular area of his or her life or relieve the individual of the effects of past activities.

This newsletter is for new people entering the freezone as well as those already here. It will be issued monthly and will contain interesting articles about the freezone and Lafayette Ron Hubbard's original philosophy.

Also there will be success stories from people who are winning in the freezone and enjoying the benefits of applying the philosophy of Lafayette Ron Hubbard as well as special quotes from the philosophy and what to do and where to go in the freezone.

I hope you find it enjoyable and pass it on to new people you meet in your daily life. It is ok to email this newsletter to anyone feel should be aware of it.

Wins & Success Stories from the Freezone

We get many success stories in the Freezone of auditing, training and even from reading Lafayette Ron Hubbard Books!

Here is just a small selection.

Clear Wins!

There's no more held down seven here! Now it's time to get some auditing going!!

ARC MB,

P.S Thanks to Ron and Pat!

With the state of Clear on the 1st dynamic, I can easily handle any mental matter, energy, space and time which equate to pictures from ones own time track. ALSO, on of the other definitions of Clear in an absolute sense states that one can confront anything and everything in the past, present and future.

I have seen a big increase in that kind of confront for myself. "Bring it on, baby" kinda thing. "Evil?" "What evil."

Another thing erased is the reactive mind and its' viciousness. Trust me, I know. What used to set me off before in a situation has no effect (cause over mental mass). Another Clear trait I recognize in myself is the increase in being able to have a bigger game and confront what it takes to play that game.

One last thing is that I notice others who aren't clear yet, trying to operating underneath their mental MEST or bank.

Purification Rundown Wins

I've just finished the purification Rundown, but really I feel like I've started something even bigger. I've had so many wins and cognitions I couldn't even adequately list them all.

One thing is for certain - I have a clean body, and a clear mind, and am now more determined than ever to get up the Bridge and continue improving my body, mind and spirit.

On top of that certainty, and the lighter, cleaner feeling I have physically, I have also lost weight, stopped smoking and abusing alcohol, and I don't even need caffeine anymore. I wake up every morning eager to live well and continue making gains and improving myself.

Enormous thanks go out to CB, FS, and my twin, JJ.

-Andrew

The Purif was great. At first I was sceptical. I was all about facts and proof before I went into it. Initially it was an ultimatum in which to shape up or lose my fiancé. So that was the original reason.

But a week into it, I became into it full throttle and there was no stopping me. It felt great, not only was my mental alertness increasing daily, but my short term memory gradually got better.

I have an incredible energy level and my relationship with my fiancé has never been better. It's taken me from roughly a -98 on the tone scale to a 22.0!

Now I'm not going to lie, it's a lot of hard work, but it's certainly worth the result.

The sauna time can sometimes be mentally draining, but when the restimulation ran it's course, I got an instant sense of accomplishment. I even started making slight connections to memories of past lives.

One piece of advice, get your sleep! I learned this the hard way in the first few days of the program.

All is a lot better and I have since become interested in taking a couple of courses, as well as auditing.

I certainly recommend doing the Purif, if it can pull me up from the dirt hole I dug, It can pull anyone out.

Study Wins

Being on course is great!

I know there were a flurry of posts recently on this very subject, but really it cannot be overemphasized how incredibly, wonderfully fantastic it is to have a course room there! In the FZ.

All the fun, all the ARC and camaraderie, all the wins I remember from being on course in COS, and none of the bullshit, none of the suppression!

It's easy to take it for granted, but it could just as easily not be there! How many other FZ course rooms are there, extant, open for training 6 days a week every week?

Pat and Ray, the rest of the staff, all the students are to be highly commended! I appreciate you all!

Mary

Wow! I feel like flying! I didn't expect such a win from simple training. After getting through each condition, one after the other, I felt my burden of case getting lighter and lighter. It's amazing. I am my true self. Training on this course has also helped my communication with others. I'm very, very, very glad that I've done this at my age. I'm at a point in my life where ethics are extremely important to understand (yet, when aren't they?)

Auditing Wins

I just completed an auditing session in Self Analysis on Time remembrance. WOW I feel so amazing! My mind just feels so open and clear (no, not Clear...not open and refreshed). I feel so relaxed. This auditing is amazing! I am probably going to audit that list at least one more time before moving on to the next. I just wanted to share with all of my friends!

Jeff

Chris gave me a session a few days ago. I don't remember ever being so happy since. Life feels like a walk in a park, and with taking care of a 6 year old and going to school, and a full time job; that's saying something! I have so much energy, and what used to make me upset, doesn't anymore! I have hope, and direction now! Chris gave me a picture book for William. He loves it! It was so nice, I can see why others like to be audited by him! And what's even more amazing is that I have certainty. What I really have, is a friend! Thanks, Chris

Ethics Wins

My success on the 1st Dynamic Ethics program.

I've always wondered what those niggling thoughts and dark moods are that cause me to lose my gains and make he hard to live with. Where do they originate> Who do I feel like Dr Jekyll & Mr. Hyde? Is it just case or is there a more specific cause? Why can't I ever get my 1st Dynamic into power and affluence?

On this course I found out all those answers. I am now the real me - the being with all the potential I ever imagined. I am like a fresh new baby into the world.

Try I and you'll know the feeling!.

Book Wins

Science of Survival

I know I mentioned this before, but I keep getting wins from this book. This is, without a doubt, one of the most profound and powerful books I have EVER read. Even the discussion of each of the columns of the chart is so amazing. The entire essence of a person is laid out in each. I know I am getting wiser and more in tune with myself, and my fellow man by reading it. God bless L. Ron Hubbard.

How I Got Into Scientology

In this issue we feature, Paul Adams An Auditor based in the UK. "In 1972 I was working in the British Museum Reading Room in London, and to get there every day I used the Tottenham Court Road tube (Underground, Metro, Subway) station, a few doors down from London Org. I walked past the Div 6 people there for weeks.

Then one day my job ended, and I was looking to improve my life-style. I was just about to get the tube out to west London to check out the "Far-Out Children of God" (or something) and procrastinated and decided to check out Scn instead. I walked in the door having decided to do a cheap, basic course, and see if Scn was worth pursuing further.

It took about an hour for the Public Reg to get around to asking me if I wanted to do a basic course, and I started on the HAS Course ten minutes later. At that time the HAS Course was basically a Hard TRs course. After three weeks full time I was up to TR-6 and joined the SO.

"Damn good course!"

Scientology & The Freezone's Future

Many people may not realize it but there is a massive grass roots scientology movement growing outside the church of scientology.

The Grass roots movement is called the Freezone. The Freezone consists of people who have either been ousted from the church or left of their own accord as well as many people who have never even set foot inside a scientology church.

It is call the Freezone because it is just that. Since the death of Ron Hubbard, Founder of Scientology, the church has undergone some deep philosophical changes by the incumbent management. Many of the scientologists in the Freezone have discovered it more beneficial to subscribe to the original philosophy rather than the 'new wave' now emanating from the church.

Many freezoners practice their philosophy very successfully and achieve outstanding results with the methods and practices as originally researched and developed by Hubbard. In fact there are groups around the planet, especially in Europe and the Baltic States, which are expanding at a rapid rate.

The future of Scientology is going to be very interesting. Indeed, we may very well see the growing movement outside the church surpass the church in numbers and expansion as they focus heavily on the philosophy and less on the material aspects
